

Illicit financial flows from Africa

$1.3
trillion

lost to illicit financial flows from Africa between 1980 and 2009.

Nigeria alone lost $188bn between 1990 and 2008

Bleeding Africa Dry?

Despite huge improvements in governance and security since the 1980s, illicit capital flight from African countries has actually accelerated. Research shows that resource exporting nations are the worst affected.